

Justine Namaalwa Jjumba

Senior Lecturer and Head, Department of Environment Management. She holds BSc Forestry from Makerere University, Masters in Natural Resources Management and Sustainable Agriculture from the Norwegian University of Life sciences (NLH) and PhD in Forest Economics from NLH. She teaches and carries out research in Natural Resource Economics, Bio-economic modeling, Forestry Resource Assessment, Forestry and Climate change, and Forest Resource Use and Management. Justine is a member of the REDD+ National technical committee, Nature Uganda, the Uganda Forestry Association and the Forestry working Group of Uganda. She attended several international conferences focusing on REDD+, making her a continuing Scholar of Climate Change. Justine serves as the Chairperson Board of Advisors for Environmental Management for Livelihood Improvement (EMLI). She has over 21 publications in international journals.