

Daniel Waiswa

Senior Lecturer in the Department of Geography, Geo- Informatics and Climatic Sciences, Makerere University where he has worked for over a decade. He holds BSc Forestry (Hons) First Class and MSc in Computer Science from Makerere University and PhD in Forest Biometrics and Geomatics from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, USA. His areas of teaching, research and community outreach are Forest Resource Assessment and Management, Geographic Information Systems and Remote Sensing among others. He is the Focal Point and Manager for the European Commission/ African Union Commission supported Environmental Station (eStation) which provides up to date data for Monitoring Environment and Security in Africa. He has a record of over 13 publications.